

Dear WALDO/CLC Members,

De Gruyter is pleased to extend the special pricing offer for their Encyclopedia of the Bible and its Reception (EBR): <https://www.degruyter.com/view/db/ebr> to CLC/WALDO Members. EBR is the only digital resources of its kind in biblical reception, covering international research in a comprehensive manner. The resource is relevant for students and researchers in theology, and religious studies, as well as across humanities fields including literature, art history, classics, and music.

Pricing information is attached. Payment can be spread across two years. If you need a three-year payment plan, please discuss with WALDO.

The discount for CLC members (up to 15,000 FTE), is as follows:

- Special additional discounting: Purchases are accepted now through December 20, 2019.
- 15 schools total (of any FTE) sign on to purchase: 40% on discounted price (CLC level is currently at 15 institution price)
- 30 schools total (of any FTE) sign on to purchase: 60% on discounted price

In addition:

- De Gruyter is working with WALDO to enable CLC schools to purchase over two or three years (as mentioned above).
- There are no additional fees of any kind above the purchase price
- All content is DRM free, fully multiuser, no restrictions on printing, or downloading

For further information, please watch their EBR editor discuss the details of the resource in this pre-recorded webinar: <https://youtu.be/lwz8ibzYXCc>

Free trials are available for any interested schools. Please contact Joanne Montgomery at joanne@waldolib.org or Todd Bludeau at bludeaupartners@optonline.net with any questions.

If you would like to order, contact Joanne Montgomery at joanne@waldolib.org.
